Art Unit: 3632

This is an office action for serial number 10/568,879.

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the support means of claim 52 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR

1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 43-56 recites the limitations "attachment device connector" and "holder connector". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the specification.

The claim terminology should match the terminology used within the specification therefore eliminating indefiniteness or confusion (e.g. attachment device connector and holder connector are not found in the specification).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 43-48, 50-56 are rejected, as best understood, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Leasure 6,679,465 in view of Kurtz 5,996,957. Leasure discloses an object attachment device (34, 36 and 25) comprising a bracket having at least two parts, support means (41), fastening means (38), a holder (42), a holder connector (32) being an entry opening, attachment device connector (39) separable from the holder having a projection having at least two projecting portions on either side of the shaft (threads on bolt) and a shaft (the elongated shaft of bolt 39). Leasure discloses all of the limitations of the claimed invention except for the drink holder being a ring and a frame. Kurtz teaches that it is well known to have a drink holder having a ring (26) and a frame (24 and 18). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to have modified Leasure to have included the ring and frame as taught by Kurtz for the purpose of allowing the device to support various type of objects including bows and cylindrical objects including drinks. The modified version of Leasure in view of Kurtz would allow for the object holder of Leasure to be removed by removing the bolt (39 of Leasure) and then replacing it with a similar object holder which includes a ring and frame (as taught by Krutz) but includes the plate member 48 including the ratchet faces (as taught by Leasure). Leasure in view of Kurtz discloses all of the limitations of the claimed invention except for the connector holder being a entry slot. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have made the entry opening (32 of Leasure) having a shape of an entry slot since such a modification is merely a reversal of parts since the opening of the holder (42) is an entry slot (see column 2, lines 25ff) to prevent the rotation of the bolt since it has been held that a mere reversal of the essential working parts of a device involves only routine skill in the art. In re Einstein, 8 USPQ 167.

Claim 49 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Leasure 6,679,465 in view of Kurtz 5,996,957 in view of Trautman et al. (Trautman) 6,942,131). Leasure in view of Kurtz discloses all of the limitations of the claimed invention except of the bracket having two part wherein each part including a fastening recess. Trautman discloses the object attachment device comprising a bracket (40) having two parts (44 and 48) wherein each part including a fastening recess (arcuate surface in 44 and 48). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have modified Leasure in view of Krutz to have substituted object attachment device as taught by Trautman for the purpose of allowing the device to attach to various objects such as cylindrical members (bars, rods, etc).

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
